

GIRL SCOUT CADETTE, SENIOR, AMBASSADOR MAINE STATE MUSEUM SCAVENGER HUNT

BEFORE YOU GO

Samantha Smith was a Girl Scout Brownie before she did some very important things. Find out about Samantha Smith. Questions you might want to explore are:

- What did she do?
- How old was she when she did it?
- Where did she live?
- Why is the world a better place today because Samantha did what she did?
- Find her statue when you go to the museum.
(There are guides who can help you find her if you get stuck.)

Margaret Chase Smith was an important person in American History. Find out about her. Questions you might want to explore are:

- What did she do?
- Where did she live?
- Why is the world a better place today?

Percival Baxter was an important person in Maine History. Find out about him. Questions you might want to explore are:

- Who was he?
- What did he do?
- Why was it so important?

Find out how your family ancestors came to Maine

There is a display in the Exhibit "At Home in Maine" called "Making Maine Home." Take this knowledge with you to the museum and you will find a place to share this information with other people who visit the museum in the future.

WHEN YOU GO

There are items throughout the entire Museum from different parts of the state. Find the items in the following displays that come from areas close to your home town:

- Quarrying
- Maine Stoneware
- Maine Patents and Inventions

Explore the following exhibits within the museum. Find something that interests you.

- To the Highest Standard (Maine's Civil War Flags)
- Made in Maine
- At Home in Maine

Find the following items:

- The Luck Chair
- Locked Moose Antlers

If you go to the museum during the week:

Leaders: This is a great activity for trips taking during school vacation times

Find the Hall of Flags

- What happens in the building where you found the Hall of Flags?
- Who has an office is very close to the Hall of Flags?
- Find Margaret Chase Smith's portrait in the Hall of Flags.
- Find Percival Baxter's statue in the Hall of Flags.

GSME and Maine State Museum Fun Fact:

One of the canoes in the Birch Bark Canoes display was found at Camp Kirkwold, one of our Girl Scout Camps, and donated to the Maine State Museum.