	Pocket Stew Girl Scouts of Louisiana East	From camper's stew to s'mores, Pocket Stew is a valuable reference for anyone who agrees that food tastes best when cooked in the great outdoors. Whether prepared over the traditional campfire or on the backyard patio grill, the recipes in this book are guaranteed to satisfy the appetites of anyone who enjoys outdoor cookery.
	Nature's Art Box Laura C. Martin with drawings by David Cain	Outside your front door is a whole world of fantastic art supplies and they are free! Guided by Nature's Art Box you'll learn how to see exciting possibilities in dry, twisted vines; shells washed up on the beach; bark that has peeled off a tree; seedpods and nutshells that litter the ground; and even the ferns growing in that damp, shady corner of your yard. Gather your materials, open your book, and find 65 all-natural art projects to choose from!
	The Great Outdoors Games & Puzzles Helene Hovanec & Patrick Merrell	A great book for Daisys & Brownies as they begin exploring the great outdoors! The Great Outdoors is filled with mazes, word games, picture puzzles, jokes and riddles, brainteasers, and fun-packed activities.
	Camp Out! The Ultimate Kids' Guide Lynn Brunelle	Whether you're planning an overnight in the backyard or a weekend in the wilderness, this book is packed with stuff to know. The basics, from gearing up to choosing a site to building a tarp tent. Plus: tasty outdoor recipes, keeping a field journal, exploring the nighttime sky, campfire stories and leaving no trace. Everything you need for a great outdoor adventure!
