

Bridging to Girl Scout Adult

Your moment is here! As a graduating Girl Scout Ambassador, you'll embrace what you've learned in Girl Scouting, honor how that will forever be a part of who you are, and step into the world as a young woman of courage, confidence and character. Are you ready to cross the bridge to Girl Scout adult? Complete these two bridging steps to earn your Bridge to Girl Scout adult award, the last award you can earn as a girl member.

Step 1: Pass It On

Share your talents and skills by teaching younger Girl Scouts something you learned to do as an Ambassador. This list has a few ideas to get you started. You only have to do one of these – or something like it – to complete the step.

- ★ Share favorite things you did on a National Leadership Journey. Did you add a trip? Meet local experts? Do something special when you earned your awards? Put together a special package or presentation to share advice and experience with Seniors.
- ★ Share with a group of Seniors your favorite memories of being an Ambassador – your Take Action projects, trips, outings, friendships, and leadership lessons learned. As you help Seniors define what leadership means to them, reflect on how others helped you along the way.
- ★ Inspire younger girls by helping them earn badges or complete a Journey activity. You could also hold a fitness clinic, teach a dance class, take them geocaching, or pass on any other special skill you've learned as a Girl Scout.

Step 2: Look Ahead

More than 900,000 adults empower girls to become leaders through Girl Scouting. Talk to Girl Scout Adults to find out what inspires them and to get ideas about what you'd like to do.

- ★ Get together with a Girl Scout adult. This doesn't have to be formal. You can start a conversation at a pizza party, take a walk on the beach, have a movie night, or go on a camping trip. Ask you adult why she thinks the Girl Scout legacy has endured or what she considers the highlights of volunteering.
- ★ Hold an appreciation breakfast or lunch for Girl Scout adults who have supported you. Share your memories, photos, or even a poem to tell them how much their help meant to you.
- ★ Create a slide show of your best moments in Girl Scouts. Add some music, then gather your friends, family, and the Girl Scout adults who influenced you to share your walk down memory lane.
