

Your talents and experience have the power to change girls' lives.

Join our team this summer at Camp Natarwi in Baxter State Park or Camp Pondicherry in the Western Mountains.

Gain valuable job skills and experience while having a blast in nature this summer!

Here's what you can experience when you join our team...

- Discovering your own inner strengths, passions, and talents as part of a dynamic, supportive, and diverse team.
- Being a part of a hardworking, responsible, and fun loving team—creating an amazing camping experience for girls.
- A culture centered on communication, commitment, respect, and integrity.
- Gratification of empowering and mentoring girls—while honing your own leadership skills.
- Creating bonds with our summer staff recruited from around the world.
- Connecting with nature, learning camp traditions, experiencing new things, and creating a love for camp.

Some call them heroes, legends, and role models. We call them Camp Staff.
