

GSME Goes To...

FAQs

What is GSME Goes To...?

- GSME Goes To... is Girl Scouts of Maine's travel program that gives Juniors and up supported, regional travel opportunities.

What is included with GSME Goes To...?

- Transportation to and from the location.
- Lodging with breakfast for each trip.
- GSME Goes To... (Juniors & Cadettes) includes group entry into one activity, such as the New England Aquarium in Boston.

Who can travel with GSME Goes To...?

- Girl Scout troops with adult leaders, Juliettes, and individual girls with an adult can register to travel on a GSME Goes To... trip.

Why should our troop travel with GSME Goes To...?

- Travel without worrying about the logistics of transportation to/from the trip location and lodging.
- Allows for girl-led planning, including their activities, meals, and itinerary.
- Prepares girls for their next travel adventure.

Where does GSME Goes To... travel to?

- GSME Goes To... (Juniors & Cadettes)
 - Boston
- GSME Goes To... (Cadettes, Seniors & Ambassadors) – For your troop's planning purpose, this program is on a three-year rotation.
 - Washington D.C.
 - Canada
 - New York City

For exact dates, locations and pricing, check the current program edition of GSME's Compass https://www.girlscoutsofmaine.org/content/dam/girlscout-sofmaine-redesign/documents/marketing-and-communications/Compass_Program.pdf

How much do GSME Goes To...Trips Cost?*

- Junior and Cadette trips start at approximately $150 per person.
- Cadette, Senior, and Ambassador trips start at approximately $600 per person depending on the location.

Costs are subject to change.*

Want more information?

Contact GSME Customer Care at customer care@gsmaine.org or give us a call at 888-922-4763.