

Girl Scout Trips & Travel Opportunities with GSME

When you plan your own Girl Scout trip—whether it’s Brownies packing their first weekend bag or Seniors boarding a plane to check out Girl Scout history in Savannah, Georgia—you’ll build courage, confidence, and lifelong skills like organization, time management, and how to work as a team to succeed when things don’t go as planned.

You’ll also build connections outside your own community and make memories to last a lifetime.

Wherever you’re looking to travel—even to countries around the world—Girl Scouts can get you there! Check out the Girl Scout Travel Progression chart to learn how: https://www.girlscouts.org/content/dam/gsus/forms-and-documents/members/travel/GSUSA\_girl-scout-travel-progression-chart.pdf

Troop Travel

Troop travel is anytime your troop meets or travels beyond your normal meeting place. This starts with the simple field trip as a Daisy, such as a trip to the local Fire Department and progresses to day trips, simple overnights, two night trips, and finally regional, national or international trips as Seniors and Ambassadors. Girls make important decisions about where to go and what to do and take increasing responsibility for the planning of their trips, all while growing their organizational and management skills—skills that will benefit them throughout their lives.

Amazing Race

Portland – Brownies and Juniors navigate Portland in the ultimate walking adventure through the city. Start your journey learning how to use public transportation and then solve clues, visit the sites, and complete challenges - all while you learn important troop travel skills.

Boston – As a team, Cadettes, Seniors, and Ambassadors explore Boston in the ultimate travel-based scavenger hunt through the city. Solve clues, visit the sites, and complete challenges, all while you learn important troop travel skills.
