

Travel Sisters FAQs

What is Travel Sisters?

- Travel Sisters is Girl Scouts of Maine's travel troop for Juniors and above.
- This unique troop offers girls leadership opportunities and cross-cultural understanding through regional and national travel opportunities.

Who can join?

- Girls who are Juniors and older!
- A whole troop or an individual member of a troop!
- Juliettes who are in 4th grade and up that want to travel!

Why join Travel Sisters?

- You'll get to travel with your sister Girl Scouts from across the state!
- Trips are led by experienced Girl Scout Leaders.
- Experience regional and national travel in a safe, interactive, fun, and exciting environment with your Girl Scout sisters!
- Earn badges related to travel, learn and enhance skills needed for travel so that you feel prepared by the time you're ready to go on your trip.
- Joining in 4th grade allows you to explore trip options with your sister Girl Scouts, choose where we're going, and plan our trip experience.
- Longer trips cost more, joining in 4th grade ensures you'll have more than enough time to earn money towards your trip through special cookie booth sales and other money earning opportunities specifically for Travel Sisters!

When and where does Travel Sisters meet?

- Meetings are typically held on Sunday afternoons once per month on Zoom.
