

Friendsgiving Invite-A-Friend Event

The holiday season is here, and Thanksgiving is a perfect time to celebrate with your troop. One way to do that is by hosting a Girl Scout Friendsgiving—a fun way to do badge work and celebrate sisterhood! Make it an invite-a-friend event to grow your troop and show others the fun of Girl Scouting.

Below are some ideas to incorporate Girl Scouting into your Friendsgiving celebration.

Have GORP (Good Old Raisin and Peanuts)

GORP is a Girl Scout version of Trail Mix. Nuts, cereal, raisins, and candy are all great things to add. First, make sure that there are no nut allergies. Then have each girl bring an item to mix in their GORP mixture. This is a great simple alternative to a complicated meal.

Make a Craft out of Nature

Spruce up the table with Pinecone Place Card Holders. Gather up pinecones. Give girls fall-colored paint to decorate their pinecones. Allow to dry on a piece of wax paper. Cut out small squares of cardstock for your kiddos to create place cards by writing out the names of the guests.

Create SWAPS

(Special Whatchamacallits Affectionately Pinned Somewhere)

SWAPS are small tokens of friendship that Girl Scouts exchange with one another, and each SWAP uniquely reflects a fellow Girl Scout, their troop, or a memory of a special event. Create a cute turkey or ornamental corn SWAP. Pinterest has lots of ideas!

Make a Global Impact

Bring non-perishable food items to your event to give to a local food pantry in recognition of Global Poverty Day.

Play Get to Know You Games

People Bingo. One of the best ways for people to get to know each other is to play a game of People Bingo! Create a Bingo that has facts on it. For example, “I have a dog, I live in town, I like Pizza.” Give each girl a Bingo card, and something to write with. Girls move around the area trying to be the first to get their Bingo cards filled up with names.

Warm Wind Blows. It is kind of like musical chairs. Put enough chairs in a circle facing each other, minus one person. One player starts in the middle, standing up. She begins the round. The person in the middle starts by saying “The warm, wind blows for everyone who...” and then says any characteristic that is true for that person. For example, if the person likes pizza, he or she can say, “Warm wind blows for everyone who likes pizza.” All players who like pizza must stand and quickly find a new seat that is more than 2 chairs away from them. If the player is not able to find a vacant seat, he or she is the new person who is in the middle.

Make Friendship Bracelets

Everyone loves to make and exchange friendship bracelets—they are a creative and unique gift and allow girls to practice their new skills.
